DONNA SURPRISES 'EM ALL.

LOWERS TRACK RECORD IN WINNING FEATURE AT CITY PARK.

Her Third Successive Victory—Yankes Girl and Pink Star, Derby Candidates, Behind Her—Esterjoy's Steeplechase.

New Orleans, La., March 12.—In the feature race at City Park to-day Barney Schreiber's Donna scored her third successive victory, set a new track record for the mile and an eighth in 1:52\(\frac{2}{5}\), and showed her heels to Yankee Girl and Pink Star, which are to carry the colors of C. R. Ellison and J. H. Woodford in the City Park Derby Saturday.

To make Donna's performance all the more impres she wheeled just as the barrier was sprung and Hennessy was forced to use the whip to get her up into a contending position. Entering the backstretch she was third. Then Hennessy held her in behind the pacemakers until well around the far turn, where he pulled to the outside and went to Yankee Girl and Tom Dolan with a rush. three entered the homestretch aligned and were abreast until the mile had been run in 1:39. In the last sixteenth the two three-years-olds began to tire, and Donna then forged to the front and won, going away by a length and a half from Tom Dolan, a nose in front of Yankee Girl. was fourth, five lengths back of the Ellison filly Yankee Girl is not a work mare and the best she had shown for to-day's race was a mile and an eighth Sunday morning, over the Fair Grounds track She is right on edge now and ready for a bruising contest on Saturday. Pink Star is a big, heavy-headed colt, and a boy like Goldstein is unable to make him do his best. He was simply running on his courage at all stages of the trip. With a strong rider up he will show decided improvement. Geneva S. having taken the race for two-year-olds.

Geneva S. having taken the race for two-year-olds, Donna's victory brought two purses to the master of the Woodlands Farm. Geneva S. is a daughter of Sain and a likely prospect. She made a runaway race of it. Esterjoy had things easy in the steeplechase. He outjumped and outfooted the others all the way. Lights Out furnished keen contention until after making the ninth jump, when he tired, and Arabo, coming strong, beat him out for second place.

For rough riding in the fifth race, Jockey L. Smith was suspended for the remainder of the meeting. T. E. Mannix ships his stable to Benning Sunday. Mars Cassidy and his assistants leave for Washington Saturday night.

With the Louisiana Stakes for two-year-olds as the feature, a very attractive card is offered for tomorrow, with such cracking good racers as Royal River, Golden Wave, Enfin; Gilfain, Goldway, King Ellsworth; Charlie Eastman, Juggler, Southern Cross; Notasulga, E. M. Fry, Schulte entry; Planute, Wes, Goldmate; Foreigner, Evie Greene, Duessa; Foxmead, Bonart and Coltness among those likely to be sent to the post.

DECISION AS TO NICOL TODAY.

New Orleans, La., March 12.—Nothing has been done regarding Nicol's engagement in the City Park Derby. The boy admits that he agreed verbally about two months ago to ride Pink Star in the City Park Derby provided he showed himself to be a good colt. According to the rules of the American Turf Association a verbal agreement is only binding for thirty days. In the meantime Joseph McLennan, acting for Nicol's mother, entered into an agreement with Burlew & O'Neill for the boy to ride one of their entry, and by the terms of the agreement Nicol is to receive $1,500 if either of the three which they expect to start will win. Judge Shelly said tonight that a decision in the matter would be renselered tomorrow.

RUBIO WINS STAKE IN ENGLAND.

At Newbury, England, a few days ago the New bury Steeplechase, worth $2,500, had quite an international flavor and it resulted in an American triumph. In addition to English and Irish bred animals, there was Rubio, who was bred in America, and York II., from Australia. Rubio carried 154 pounds and was in front all of the way, to win easily by five lengths from the favorite. Rubio is by Star Ruby-La Toquera, and a full brother, therefore, to Sombrero, which raced in the colors of Green B. Morris. Rubio was foaled in 1898 and is one year older than Sombrero. He was sent to England and sold as a yearling by his breeder, James B. Haggin. Rubio, it is said, was figuring between the shafts of a light van only a short time ago.

MONTGOMERY'S TRIAL AT MEMPHIS.

The dispatches from New Orleans announcing the arrival of Montgomery at the Fair Grounds Monday we've premature. The colt is still at Memphis, where yesterday he worked a mile and a quarter in preparation for the Crescent City Derby in 2:15, not 2:10 as wa's stated in local afternoon papers. He will have autother work-out at Memphis before being shipped to New Orleans.

EXPECT MILLER TO RIDE TEMACEO.

New Orleans, La., March 12.—There is a report in circulation here that Walter Miller is coming from New York to vide Temaceo in the City Park Derby. The man in charge of the colt could not say who will ride him. He says he expects C. E. Durnell here and will not know about the rider until Satur-

ASCOT PARK IS TO CLOSE MARCH 30.

Meeting Is Extended Fifteen Days — Don Domo's Fast Tlyree-Quarters of a Mile.

Los Angeles, Cal., March 12.—It was officially announced to-day that the meeting at Ascot Park will be extended fifteen days, closing March 30, and making 105 days, instead of ninety as originally scheduled. This was the eighty-ninth day of the meeting. The weather was perfect, the attendance large and the sport highly enjoyable. Don Domo's splendid effort was greeted with vociferous applause. He carried 120 pounds and ran three-quarters in 1:13½, the best performance here this year, the next best being his three-quarters in 1:13½ February 14. J. R. Laughrey, one of the most promising three-year-olds here, was sent out after the grey streak, but put up a sorry effort.

El Cazador's good performance in the final race of the day, in which he spun off seven furlongs in 1:27, winning eased up, impressed John Brink so forcibly that he bid him up from $700 to $2,500, through his trainer, E. Wayland, and bought him.

Jockey McDaniel left for the east tonight, and will be seen in the saddle at Benning. He was unquestionably the best rider here.

Fairly good racing only is promised for tomorrow, no horse of a high order of speed appearing among the entries, but some useful performers are named to start and among them Karodo, Gigana, Talien; King Ahab, Kirkfield Belle, Nappa; Rama, Stoessel, Desmages; Cotillion, Goldspot, Freesias; Luckett, Ero Pyro, Joe Kelley; Interlude, El Bernado and Parting Jennie have run well on various occasions.

NICOL BEST BOY ON TWO-YEAR-OLDS.

New Orleans, La., March 12.—Jockey Nicol's percentage of winning mounts in the juvenile races here this winter has been such as to strengthen the position long ago accorded to him as the best rider of two-year-olds in the west and one of the very best in the country. From January 21 to February 6 Nicol was away, and for this period of fourteen racing days he did not ride. He had no mounts in nine of the remaining races. Altogether up to and including Saturday, lifty-two races have been dedecided here this winter for the juvenile brigade. Nicol was absent from the saddle in twenty-three of them, rode in twenty-nine, and won twelve. This is a most remarkable showing, and it will add to Nicol's reputation when he goes east, which he will do early in the summer season.

Nicol has been more than usually successful as a rider of two-year-olds at the present City Park meeting, due partly to the fact that he has not had to meet the competition of other competent jockeys. Martin is under suspension, while Mountain and Austin are at Hot Springs. He has thus had a distinct advantage over the inexperienced—many of them incompetent-lads he has been pitted against. and three and one-half furlong dashes, the start is half the battle, as two-year-olds can run as fast, if not faster at three furlongs as at any other age, and two or three lengths gained in the first furlong means a lot. Nicol holds his mounts together at the post, tiptoes them away from the barrier and as a rule has the race won in the first quarter, while light-weight apprentice boys, not educated to barrier tactics, and few of them are, generally get away with a slack rein, or when not in position and lose all winning chances at the start. If his present form as a rider of youngsters continues, it would look as though Nicol would be in demand in the juvenile events in the east next summer. In the two-year-old races here J. Lee has ridden six winners, J. Hennessy four, J. Martin, Seder and G. Swain three each, and W. McIntyre, Walker, Troxler, Lowe, L. Smith, D. Austin and Garner two each.

QUEEN CITY HANDICAP ENTRIES.

Cincinnati, O., March 12.—Secretary Dillon of the Latonia Jockey Club announces fifty-seven entries to the Queen City Handicap, with the possibility of one or two more that may be in a letter which has been delayed or lost in transmission from California. Eugene Elrod wired that he had mailed a letter contaning entries on the date of closing, but the letter has not been received. The Queen City Handicap is for three-year-olds and upward at one mile and an eighth, with a guaranteed value of $10,000, a reduction of $2,500 from last year, when it was won by Sir Huon. The weights are to be announced Monday, April 1. The horses entered are:

COLLECTOR JESSUP WINS FEATURE.

Shot Gun Gets a Poor Start—Corn Blossom Shows Improvement.

Oakland, Cal., March 12.—The weather was beautiful and the attendance big for an off-day. The cuppy and deceptive going was a serious drawback. Shot Gun's defeat by Collector Jessup in the handicap at three-quarters of a mile, fourth on the progarm, evoked general surprise. Many spectators blamed the starter for the big sprinter's downfall. Corn Blossom displayed form of a superior order in the closing race at seven furlongs. Koerner rode him perfectly and he won in such a manner as to entitle him to consideration among the best of the local handicap division.

S. C. Hildreth sold the two-year-old College Widow to Hoag & Soule today. Captain Hackett also disposed of Dredger and Henry Kelly to J. J. Walsh. An average card is presented for to-morrow afternoon, and with such tried horses as Orena, Albia, Love of Gold; Shady Lad, Confessor, Dr. Sherman; Cadichon, Crowshade, Mabel Hollander; Dr. Leggo, Mandator, Northwest; Gateway, Misty's Pride, Nonie Lucille; Grace G., Ocean Shore and Kokomo among those named to start, only bad weather can prevent attractive and well-contested racing.

WEIGHTS FOR SPRING HANDICAPS.

Washington, D. C., March 12.—Joseph A. Murphy, official handicapper for the Washington Jockey Club, announces the weights for the Benning Spring Handicaps to be run the first and last days of the spring meeting, which opens March 25 and closes April 13. Both races will be run over the Columbia Course, the first at three-quarters of a mile and the second at seven-eighths of a mile. A winner of a race of any value after 12 o'clock today to carry three pounds extra; of two races or one of $1,000, five pounds extra; of three races or one of $1,500, eight pounds extra. The winner of the first handicap will carry ten pounds extra if he starts in the second handicap. Here are the weights:

NO HOPE FOR SALEM.

New York, March 12.—The news that there is a chance for the Salem track matter to be fixed up and racing continued there is given but little credence here. In fact, some of the officials connected with the meeting last year have said decisively that such a turn of affairs is out of the question. The venture has already been figured up in the loss column by its promoters.

The loss was a heavy one, possibly more than a half million dollars. One of the heaviest stockholders said recently that he was through and that the venture was not worth one penny on the dollar. The future of the magnificent course can only be surmised. The outstanding debts are trivial as compared with the cost, but the property will probably be taken over to settle these accounts.

ably be taken over to settle these accounts.

The track was an ill-advised venture. There was little reason to believe that puritanical New England would ever support thoroughbred racing, and especially to the extent of making such an expensive course a profitable venture. A course could have been built for one-half what the Salem course cost that would have served splendidly for racing in New England, even under the most favorable conditions.

TO RATIFY LOUISVILLE MERGER.

New Orleans, La., March 12.—It is said that the principal business on hand for the coming meeting of the American Turf Association, which will be held on Friday in the offices of the City Park Jockey Club, is the ratification of the agreement between the Louisville Jockey Club and the Douglas Park Jockey Club. Several jockeys will also make application for reinstatement. Among them John Treubel, J. E. Seagram, of Toronto, is using every influence to have Treubel restored to good standing. He wants him to ride for him at Toronto this spring.

E. M. FRY HAS A GOOD FUTURE.

Writing from New Orleans concerning E. M. Fry, an experienced horseman says: "Barney Schreiber's colt did not show his true form in his last race as, besides conceding weight, he got away badly. As a likely campaigner he is probably the most desirable prospect here, as he is a wiry colt, one that looks as though he would campaign indefinitely."

STEVENS IS REINSTATED.

Jockey Glen Stevens, who was ruled off at Denverlast summer, has been reinstated by the Denver-Overland Racing Club, and has made application to the Western Jockey Club for license to ride,

LEO MAYER IS ACQUITTED.

PROSECUTOR MEANS FAILS TO MAKE A CASE AGAINST BOOKMAKER.

Other Trials Set for Today at Hot Springs— Savable Finishes Third—The Racing at Oaklawn.

Hot Springs, Ark., March 12.—Leo Mayer, charged with violation of the Amis law, was tried and acquitted in Justice Smith's court this morning. The trial was by jury. Prosecuting Attorney Means failed to make out a case. The trials of John Wolf, Barney Wolf, Tom Karney and Frank Heney are set for tomorrow. Messrs. Cella, Kramer and Higgins forfeited their bonds by failure to appear today. New warrants were issued and are returnable tomorrow.

Though upsets were frequent, the sport at Oaklawn this afternoon was enjoyable. The appearance of Savable, the Futurity winner of 1902, in the third race carried much interest. The best he could do was third to Omah J. and Fleming. His legs are under suspicion and smart trainers say he is apt to break down at any time. The defeat of Manchester created much dissatisfaction. The same in the case of Hannibal Bey. The most exciting contest of the meeting came in the closing race. The five horses were bunched at all stages, necks and noses separating the first four at the finish, with the purse going to Thistle Do. There was much rough riding. In the fourth Wing Ting was jumped on. Her boots saved her from serious injury. There came near being a spill because of the crowding in the stretch in the fifth race. Jockey Mountain rode three winners.

A good card is offered for tomorrow and with a fast track in prospect such horses as Shirley Rossmore, Orphany, Boll Weevil; Theodocia, Bob's Pet, Ballad; Ben Strong, Haughty, Ralbert; Redgauntlet, Beecher, Calabash; Bendigo, Big Bow, Helgerson; Dr. Lee Huffman, Hawkama and Woolstartle among others, should furnish a satisfactory afternoon's sport.

WANTS RECEIVER FOR ESSEX PARK.

Rome Respess Asks That Affairs of Hot Springs Jockey Club Be Wound Up.

Little Rock, Ark., March 12.—J. B. Respess, through his attorneys, this morning filed a petition in the Federal Court asking that a receiver be appointed to take charge of the Essex Park race track property. It is set forth that the petitioner is the holder of more than $16,000 in bonds of the Essex Park property, and that the property is now going to waste. A receiver is asked for who will have authority to wind up the business of the Hot Springs Jockey Club, dispose of the property to the best advantage and make returns to the creditors.

JOHNSON COLLECTING JUMPERS.

New Orleans, La., March 12.—James Johnson is getting together a stable of jumpers to campaign on the second circuit in the east. He arranged today to handle Dr. Keith and will take him, together with Incantation and Torchello, to Pimlico Tuesday next. The colored rider Wallace Hicks has been galloping horses all the winter for Johnson and will resume riding when he reaches Baltimore. Hicks expects to ride as light as 108 pounds this summer.

GOVERNOR MOORE TO INVESTIGATE.

Little Rock, Ark., March 12.—The reports that have come to acting Governor Moore concerning betting at Oaklawn racetrack differ so radically that he has decided to send an agent to Hot Springs to make an investigation and report to him before any action is taken.

BROTHER TO KING'S COURIER.

Lexington, Ky., March 12.—Mrs, Ella Offutt Pepper has a full brother to King's Courier, by Kingston—Stylitene. The youngster, it is said, resembles his illustrious brother closely as to color and markings.

CARE AND PATIENCE ARE REWARDED.

Black Ivory, a recent cross-country winner in England, was last year dangerously ill with pneumonia. His trainer succeeded in nursing him back to health by feeding him port wine, brandy, eggs and such like delicacies.

MAY SHIPS TO BENNING.

Memphis, Tenn., March 12.—"Bub" May shipped Tyrolian and the two-year-old by Silverdale to Benning this afternoon.

CAPTAIN WILLIAMS IS ILL.

Versailles, Ky., March 12.—Captain Jim Williams, the veteran turfman, is ill at his farm near Spring Station.

PINCUS TELLS HARD LUCK STORIES.

Loses a Big Stable by Not Taking the Tip of Three Shrewd Australians.

"The hardest race I ever lost?' said Jacob Pin repeating the query put to him. "Well, that is a pretty hard question for a man who has been with the runners as rider and trainer for half a century to answer. But a race I lost at Sandown Park, in England, is probably entitled to head my list of disappointments, all things being considered.
"I think it was the second year I was training in England. I am not sure now as to the name of the stake, but I know it was for two-year-olds and worth $15,000. At Sandown Park the two-year-old course is laid out through the center of what we would call here the infield, though the tracks are altogether of a different shape. This course was a altogether of a different shape. This course was a straight run through this field, finishing, of course, away below the stand.

"After a terrific race three of us finished in dead heat. The other trainers represented in the were Tom Wood and Dick Marsh, the latter the King's trainer at present. I first met Wood, and as a division meant $5,000 to each of us, and as we had no desire to repeat with a good two-year-old after such a grueling race, we thought it best to divide. But when we met Marsh he would not agree to a division of the purse, giving as his reason that the Duke of Hamilton, who owned the horse he run, was not present, and that he would not take the responsibility on himself.

"There was nothing left but to run it off. Wood and myself happened to be cooling our horse near each other. Three Australians came walking up to Wood, and one of them asked him if he thought he could win with seven pounds less weight to carry. Wood said he believed he could. 'Then,' said the spokesman of the Australians, 'take off those heavy shoes and run your colt barefooted.'

"The English at that time used very heavy plates, a set, according to the knowledge or estimate of Australians, weighing seven pounds. agreed, called a blacksmith, had the plates removed and the hoofs of the horse smoothed down. I saw and heard all that went on, but thought they were making a mountain out of a molehill. The plates I used were much lighter, you see, and I didn"t take the matter seriously.

"Well, Wood's colt and mine had it hammer and tongs again in the run-off. We quickly left Marsh behind and in the fiercest kind of a drive Wood's colt beat mine a short head. I don't know that removing the plates made any difference, but Wood's advisers said it would, and perhaps it did. That was a hard race to lose, as I had $5,000 cinched if Marsh had agreed to a division, and then I failed to take the Australian's tip and remove the plate from my own horse, which might have made a dif-

"But there have been other hard losses. but there have been other hard losses, and the letest involved jockey Saxby, who I see has been engaged to ride Camisard, the favorite for the Lin-colnshire Handicap. This was only a few years ago, when I was racing a small stable of my own. I had won two races in one day at Newmarket and stood a good chance of repeating the double at Yarmouth a few days later. Saxby was an apprentice then, but a fair rider, and when Pickering, his employer, asked me to put him up, I consented.

"The track at Yarmouth was originally a straight course only, but in order to run long distance races they put in a funny little loop that covered little more than a quarter of a mile from where it left the main track until it intersected again. In that short run the horses had to turn from east to west, so you can imagine what sharp turns there were I wasn't acquainted with the course or would never have permitted a light apprentice to take the mount. Saxby did just what might have been expected—allowed the horse to run out on the sharp turn. He bolted so suddenly that he barely escaped going into the river, which ran alongside the course, but came on to finish a good third.
"My other starter came later, and this time Saxby won. I was feeling somewhat reconciled to the loss of the first race, when the clerk of the course hunted me up and said: 'I'm sorry, Mr. Pincus, but cour boy was five pounds overweight and your horse will have to be disqualified.' After making the weight the boy's valet had evidently picked up all After making the the lead in sight and stuffed the pockets full, for there it was, five pounds too much.

But these are only a few cases, and I expect I could recall many more if I ransacked my memory.'

ASCETIC'S SILVER HAS A MISHAP.

Ascetic's Silver, winner of the Grand National Steeplechase last year and the top weight for the coming renewal of that race March 22, at Liverpool. England, burst a blood vessel a fortnight ago, but is again all right and taking his gallops regularly. It is a remarkable coincident that this horse met with the same mishap last year before the running of the race. However, the accident then came more than two months before the date of the running of the race.

Went to post at 3:17. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won driving; secone easily: third the same.
Don Domo, showing dazzling speed, raced Pantoude into subjection in the first half and appeared to bave things his own way, but nad to be hustled in the last eighth to withstand Massa's challenge. Massa, rush, was wearing the winner down at the end. Pantoufle set and forced a tremedous pace for the first half, came through fast in the final cighth and, finishing with a rush, was wearing the winner down at the end. Pantoufle set and forced a tremedous pace for the first half, then retired, J. R. Laughrey ran poorly.

Great Pirate is showing steady improvement and is evidently a good colt, followed the leader close up in the early stages, wore him down with great case in the last sixteenth after a slight shaking up and won with plenty in reserve. Hollow showed his usual early speed, but tired slightly in the last furlong. Aunt Hala had no mishaps, closed up ground and was right there at the finish. Manchester, palpably unfit, ran far below his best form and can do much better. Lady Hapsburg was outclassed here and weakly ridden. Etta Louise tried to run out most of the way.

Went to post at 3:46. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving; third the same. The Bear showed a surprisingly good performance and clear of interference all the way, won as his rider pleased. Mike Sutton ran forwarly from the start and stayed well in the final drive. Hannibal Bey had a rough trip throughout, but ran poorly, can do much better and will probably beat the winner soon. Wing Ting was almost thrown down at the start and stayed well in the final drive. Hannibal Bey soon gas at at the end. Dr. Mack ran forwardly in the early stages and, when beaten, interfered with Hannibal Bey.
